

Sports

Photo/STEVE SOMERVILLE

The ball stops here

Stouffville District Secondary School's Mike Lavell (far right) and Martin Reesor extend their arms to the limit in an attempt to block this shot from an Uxbridge player in an exhibition junior boys' volleyball contest at Stouffville District Secondary School on Tuesday. Lavell and Reesor were successful in their attempt and the host Spartans won the contest 3-2.

Goals not hard to come by for Freel Lane senior girls

Kristi Ingram had four goals and two assists, while teammates Kari Sandiford and Sherri Rossi each picked up a pair of markers and an assist, to lead Freel Lane Kitchen Gallery to an 8-4 win over Pizza Pizza in Whitchurch Stouffville Girls' Hockey Association senior houseleague play on Oct. 27.

Other Freel Lane assists were earned by Erin Anweiler (2), Tara Baron, and Carrie Kirby. Kerri Rumble had a hat trick for Pizza Pizza, with Christina Deuwulf adding the fourth. Alana Gouldan, Rumble and Susan Masters assisted.

In the other senior match, Kathy Tait scored three times and Leandre Forsyth clicked twice, as Stouffville Kinsmen blanked Wright's Tax & Accounting 10-0.

Tanya Witty, Candice Miller, Alison Edward, Sherry Hartnett, and Lindsay Reid also scored for Kinsmen. Danielle

Clarkson, Miller, Hartnett, and Reid assisted.

Jessica Clayton collected four goals, to go with two by Marlee Johnson, as Play It Again Sports downed Moller Insurance 7-4 in junior houseleague action two days earlier.

Karlee Dudley had a goal and two assists for Play It Again, which also got assists from Meagan Crowder (2), and Christina Davis.

Emily Patriarche scored twice and had an assist for Moller, which also got goals from Melissa Theoret and Blair Wilkinson. Other Moller assists were earned by Theoret and Jillian Morrison.

In other junior contest, Jacqui VanKoughnet's hat trick enabled Stouffville Bowling to earn a 5-5 tie with Beaver Gas Bar.

Julia Summerhill netted the other two Bowling goals, with assists going to Summerhill, Jaime Lyn Geldart and Stephanie Rand.

Mary Callan had two goals for Beaver.

Michelle Dulude picked up a solo marker along with two assists, while Andrea Meyer and Yvette Cuthbertson also found the range. Lynn Harrison had an assist.

Softball talks coming up

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Softball Association (WSSA) will hold its annual general meeting on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Rec Centre lounge.

All are welcome to the meeting.

The WSSA is also planning to hold a pre-registration today from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Rec Centre.

Flames and Flyers receive perfect netminding efforts

The Flames and Flyers put the locks on the doors Sunday in Stouffville Amateur Hockey League play, as both teams registered shutouts.

Goalkeeper John Carrick stopped every shot directed his way to lead the A and S Construction Flames to a 3-0 triumph over the Stomark Rental Kings.

John Barnett, Kim Kavluk, and Doug Joyce each potted one goal for the Flames.

Meanwhile, netminder Bruce McGee played a perfect game between the pipes to direct the Villeneuve Heating Flyers to a 3-0 victory over the K.R. May Real Estate Whalers.

Jim McKechnie, Jack Holder, and Gary Yoshida each collected one goal for the Flyers.

In other games, Bill Thornhill recorded a hat trick to ignite the Gallo Real Estate (Sherri Hayes) Red Wings to a 3-1 victory over the Spring Lakes Nordiques.

Bill Anderson scored the lone Nordiques goal.

Brent Stachel and Kevin McGuckin each clicked twice, and Neil Findlay added a solo score, as the Hunters Nest North Stars defeated the Village Landscaping Capitals 5-2.

Doug Todd and Bill Housser had the Caps goals.

The G and R Flooring Jets received a two-goal performance from former Toronto Maple Leafs' defenceman Bill Root to down the Boyd's Sports Sharks 4-1.

Brent Gibson and Scott Conner also clicked for the Jets.

Gerry "Felix" Ratcliff stood out in goal for the Sharks despite the loss.

The Occasions Catering Blues doubled up the Smurthwaite Heating Bruins 4-2.

Bill Ormson, Rich Hughes, Ralph Cain, and Chester Cengarle were credited with single tallies for the Blues.

Bill Harman and Gary Fraser scored for the Bruins.

In a tight contest, the Rand Pools Maple Leafs battled the Stouffville Travel Black Hawks to a 3-3 stalemate.

Bruce Gribbon, Garth Krisman, and Irwin Meyer scored for the Maple Leafs.

Dave Farlow, Damian Comito, and Wayne Glencross responded for the Black Hawks.

Atom Clippers post two big weekend wins

The Aikens IDA Pharmacy Atom Clippers chalked up another two victories in Ontario Minor Hockey Association action last weekend.

The Stouffville squad came up with a big effort to down Lindsay 3-1 Friday night at the Rec Centre.

The club then followed that up with a 5-3 win over Peterborough.

Grant Turner and Lukas Williams each collected a goal and an assist in Friday's contest.

Robbie Schimmell also scored, while other assists came from David Brown and Ryan Fontana.

Against Peterborough, it was Williams, Turner, Matthew Prentice, Fontana, and Schimmell finding the target for the Clippers, who were playing without a few of their players.

Brent Meyer collected three assists, with other set ups by Fontana, Williams, and Brown.

* NEW *
SKATE EXCHANGE

CURLING

FIGURE
SKATES

OPEN
SUNDAYS

THE ANNUAL NOVEMBER EVENT
PAY NO TAXES

ALL IN STOCK; EXCEPT WHOLESALE

* NEW OWNERS *
FORMERLY
BOBBY ORR SPORTS

BAY SPORTS
The Cycle & Hockey Specialists

MARKHAM 471-1960
Mon.-Fri. 9 to 8
Saturday 9 to 5
Sunday 10 to 4

PICKERING 839-5610
Mon.-Fri. 10 to 8
Saturday 9 to 6
Sunday 10 to 4

OSHAWA 571-5610
Mon.-Fri. 10 to 8
Saturday 9 to 6
Sunday 12 to 5

OFFICIAL SUPPLIER TO MARKHAM MINOR HOCKEY