

A successful road trip for bantam Clippers

The Edward Murphy Painting and Decorating bantam Clippers took to the road last weekend, bringing home a pair of convincing victories.

Rob Spytz's six-point effort backed up the shutout goaltending of Evan Boyd and Bill Patterson in a 6-0 victory over Trenton last Saturday.

Spytz counted three goals and three assists, while Adam Crowder scored twice and Greg Crozier netted the other Clippers score.

Scott Assinck earned two assists, with Ryan King setting up a goal as well.

Facing Uxbridge on Sunday, the Clippers fell behind 2-0 before Spytz hit for a pair of goals and Jeff Hassard, Assinck, and King added singles in a 5-2 Clippers' victory.

Assists went to Crowder (2), Jason Heyworth, Dan Tardella, Hassard, and Assinck.

The bantams entertain Peterborough at the Rec Centre on Sunday.

Midget Clippers take two of three

Goalies Brad Hackert and Josh McKellar combined on a double whitewash job, while John McKinnon scored four goals and added six assists, as the Cable Tech midget Clippers took two of three games played recently.

The Clippers fell just short against Cobourg Oct. 26, losing 3-2 despite the impressive performance of goaltender John Tamburo.

McKinnon and Brad Crozier found the net for the Cable Tech crew. David Hutchison, Ian Ellis, Jason Davis and Roger McMann assisted.

McMann collected three goals and two assists to pace the Clippers to an 8-0 each had a goal and a pair of assists. Lindsey Haylow, Crozier and Peter Smith also scored, with other assists coming from Michael Underwood (3), Rob Keys (2) and Haylow.

Hackert and McKellar were unbeatable in the Stouffville net once again Sunday as the Clippers handed Pickering an 8-0 defeat.

McKinnon drilled three goals and added as many assists, while Hutchison scored twice to go with three set ups. Haylow had a goal and three assists. McMann and Davis had solo scores, with other assists going to Brian Coughlan (2), Smith, and Crozier.

The midgets play their home games Fridays at 9:10 p.m.

Good and bad news for novice Clippers

Scott Davis marked his return to the Ken and Neil Patrick major novice Clippers goal by posting a shutout as the Stouffville team defeated Port Hope 5-0 Saturday night at the Rec Centre.

Andy Gibson scored twice for the Clippers.

Blair Loughead, Rod Assinck, and Shawn Burns rounded out the scoring, with assists going to Rod Assinck (2), Mike Cornacchia (2), Josh Brillinger, and Cameron Davis.

The Birkett Hassard minor novice Clippers battled back to within a goal of Oshawa, but were finally edged 4-3 in their game.

Mark Carruthers scored twice for the Clippers, while James Guinane added the third marker.

Kevin Hayward and Joshua Spang picked up assists for the Stouffville team, which came up with one of its best games of the season.
