

Major peewees edge Lindsay

Sam Lécasse held the fort in goal, while the line of Jason Fontana, Mattie Egan and Kyle Harrison dominated offensively, as the Markham-Stouffville Credit Union major peewee Clippers handed Lindsay a 5-3 loss at the Rec Centre on Saturday.

Fontana, Egan, Harrison, Chris McDonald and Dan Rumeo scored for the Clippers.

Assists were credited to Mike Wood, Harrison, Fontana, Egan and J.P. Belanger. Earlier in the weekend, the Stouffville squad won two out of three games played in their first tournament of the season in Bolton.

The Clippers got shutout goaltending from Andrew Harper in a 3-0 win over St. Thomas in their opener Friday night.

Brett Boyd, McDonald and Rumeo notched the Stouffville markers with assists coming from Andrew Korb, with two, and Wood.

In game two on Saturday morning, Rumeo scored twice, to go with a solo by Boyd, as the Clippers downed Malvern 3-1.

Assists went to Chris Johnstone, Korb and Rumeo.

But the Clippers then fell 3-1 to Aurora, leaving them 1 1/2 points shy of qualifying for the playoff round. Boyd had the lone Clipper goal, from Mark Meyer.

Spytz on a scoring spree again

Rob Spytz counted four goals and two assists to propel the Edward Murphy Painting and Decorating bantams to a 7-2 win over Peterborough in Ontario Minor Hockey Association Lakeshore action at the Rec Centre Friday night.

It was the second six-point night in a row for Spytz.

The victory avenged a rare defeat for the bants at the hands of Peterborough earlier in the season.

Tim Smart, back after missing six games, scored twice for Stouffville.

Dave Clark also scored for the winners.

Assists were earned by Adam Crowder (2), Scott Assinck (2), Matt Turner, Jeff Hassard, Ryan King, and Jason Heyworth.

The bantams will play a Saturday, followed by a league tournament in Flesherton game in Belleville on Sunday.
