Crossin earns softball honors

A Stouffville senior will have her name engraved on a plaque honoring the Provincial Women's Softball Association's (PWSA) annual Intermediate level MVP, Whitchurch Stouffville Town Council was told recently.

Eleanor Crossin, Church St. S., was awarded the privilege after donating money to the PWSA last summer.

The plaque will be awarded for the first time at the PWSA annual convention in St. Catharines on Nov. 20.

Councillor Cliff Dunkeld, a veteran PWSA executive member, told the Tribune that as well as donating money, Mrs. Crossin helped look after the needs of the PWSA executive members present at the association's Novice Girls championship tournament held in Stouffville last summer.

A committed member of the Stouffville Lawn Bowling Club, Mrs. Crossin once played for a Markham area teenaged girls team which won the gold medal at a softball tournament held at the Canadian National Exhibition.

She put on the pads and tended goal during a women's old-timer's hockey game at the Rec Centre last March, stopping several shots lobbed at her by ex-NHL star Bobby Hull in a between periods exhibition.

Flames scorch Capitals

Bob Davis and Jamie Dunbar each scored twice, and John Carrick recorded his second straight shutout, as the A & S Construction Flames blanked the Village Landscaping Capitals 5-0 Sunday in Stouffville Amateur Hockey League action.

Gord Smith had the other Flames goal.

In other league games, Don Lloyd scored twice, and Bill Harman, Doug Gornall, and Gary Fraser had singles, as the Smurthwaite Heating Bruins downed the May Real Estate Whalers 5-1.

Randy Lee clicked for the Whalers.

The Stouffville Travel Black Hawks received a balanced scoring attack to down the Gallo Real Estate (Sherri-Hayes) Red Wings 5-2.

Joe Infurnari, Rob Martyn, Damian Comito, Dave Farlow, and John Hickman scored for the Black Hawks.

Vern Thompson and John Nesbitt replied for the Red Wings.

Andy Perley and Ralph Cain each had a goal to direct the Occasions Catering Blues to a 2-1 win over the Villeneuve Heating Flyers.

Frank Kafun scored the lone Flyer marker.

Spring Lakes Nordiques got two goals from Bruce Mehaffey and singles from Bob Nicholls, and Robert Smith to edge the Rand Pools Maple Leafs 4-3.

Jim Gray, Art Nicholson and Garth Krisman scored for the Maple Leafs.

In another close contest, the Stomark Rental Kings edged the Boyd's Sports Sharks 2-1.

Gord Sutcliffe and Matt Hawkins scored for the Kings.

Bob Hughes had the lone marker for the Sharks.

The G & R Flooring Jets received single tallies from Bill Root, Doug Wright, Scott Conne and Brian Davis to turn back the Hunter's Nest North Stars 4-1.

Neil Findlay had the lone North Stars marker.

Wright and Williams earn gold

Summitview Public School students Wendy Wright and Lukas Williams ran their way to first-place finishes in the intermediate girls and junior boys categories respectively at the York Region Area F Cross Country Meet on Oct. 18.

The victories qualified the two for the regional championships held Oct. 26, which saw Wendy place second and Lukas, third.

Girls hockey tournament scheduled for Sunday

Two Stouffville teams will be among the eight teams competing in the two-tiered Stouffville Girls Hockey Tournament this Sunday at the Rec Centre.

The Dean Myers Atoms will face off against Scarborough at 8 a.m. to start off the Atom B competition.

At 9 a.m., it will be the Stouffville Action Signs squad versus Scarborough to kick off the Bantam A flight.

SCORE BOARD

STOUFFVILLE THURSDAY AFTERNOON LADIES BOWLING

Over 600
Barb Melhvish 213, 229, 240 - 682
Over 200
Lori Sellers 222, Audrey Gibson 220, Ev McKay 217, Helen Lehman 216, Bernice Nelson 213, Dawna Ziegler 201.

DON VALLEY NORTH LEXUS - TOYOTA ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

ERIC GOODWIN

Team Captain Eric Goodwin of the Markham Thunder Midget AAA hockey team was recently honored by being selected as the Most Valuable Defenceman of the Oshawa Midget Classic Hockey Tournament. In the four games that his team played, Eric scored four goals and added six assists, and was named by tournament organizers as Team Most Valuable Player in three out of the four games.

Eric is 17 years of age, and attends grade 12 at Unionville High School. In addition to sports, Eric is also interested in classic cars.

DON VALLEY NORTH LEXUS - TOYOTA
3120 Steeles Ave. E.
East of the 404 (Pkwy.) 475-0722

HUGE SAVINGS
ON SKI EQUIPMENT AND ACCESSORIES.

THE PRO SHOP
• SKATE SHARPENING
• REPAIRS
• AND MORE

FREE SKATE SHARPENING
• WITH COUPON ONLY
• ONE PER CUSTOMER
• EXPIRES NOV. 14/93

LOCATED IN THE STOUFFVILLE COUNTRY FLEA MARKET
642-2285

sports National warehouse outlet

VISA MasterCard