Stouffville Christian School store offers bargains for local Christmas shoppers

There is a store where you can get a good part of your Christmas shopping done at low prices.

This may sound like a commercial, but in fact, the store is located at the Stouffville Christian School, and all funds raised will go toward assisting school activities.

The Christmas store is a long-standing tradition at the school, and each year, it seems to get better and bigger.

For years, the school has offered a wide variety of items for sale, for all members of the family, and this year is no exception.

All year long, students, faculty, the PTFA, and parents alike have scoured the community, province, and even the United States for some great bargains to pass on to Christmas shoppers in Stouffville.

The store opens Monday Nov. 29 and will stay open through Dec. 3.

According to Barb Baxter, who is running the store at the school this year, more than $2,000 was raised at last year's sale, and the hope is that more will be made this time around.

Gift wrapping is available, and most gifts are for sale at rock-bottom prices.

In fact, Baxter said there are very few items priced over $10, and all items are available for less than they would cost in retail stores.

The store organizers spends time all year searching for unique and practical gifts, everyday items and best-sellers at warehouse stores, bargain outlets, wholesalers, distributors and area merchants to buy items for the store.

Many of the items come from donors, as well, Baxter noted.

Tins of cookies, candies, gift wrap, small stocking stuffers and larger items are all available.

While at the store, free cookies, drinks and coffee make the experience festive and fun.

Hours of operation will be from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. for the five days the store is open.

The store is located in the north campus portable of the Stouffville Christian School, located east of Stouffville.

Call the school at 640-3297 for more information.
