Minor novice Clippers wilt in the late going

In what has become a familiar pattern, the Birkett Hassard minor novice Clippers ran out of gas in the third period as they fell 4-2 to Uxbridge in a recent Ontario Minor Hockey League game.

The Clippers held their own for the first two periods. James Guinans and Mark Carruthers scored, with Derek Wilcock picking up an assist.

But the bottom fell out in the final period as Uxbridge overtook their Stouffville opponents to earn the win.

The teams engage in a rematch this weekend in a contest to be played in Sunderland.

Major atom Clippers down Ajax but lose to Cobourg

Lukas Williams netted a hat trick, and Ryan Jackson and David Brown each scored a pair, as the Aikens Pharmacy major atom Clippers thumped Ajax 10-1 in a recent exhibition hockey game.

Brent Meyer, Robbie Schimmell, and Casey Maude rounded out the Clippers' scoring.

Schimmell drew three assists while Jackson and Ryan Jones each had two. Grant Turner, Meyer, Williams, Blair Cain and Ryan Fontanna added singles.

The Clippers were shaded 3-2 by Cobourg in a league encounter.

Cain and Schimmell scored for Stouffville, which took the loss when Cobourg scored with just 10 seconds left in the game.

Justin Heyworth, Brown and Meyer had assists.

Spartans make it a clean sweep

(From page 33)

Jarvis, and Tanis McKnight also contributed.

The favored junior Spartans defeated Middlefield C.I. 28-20 despite playing at less than full speed.

"They didn't play their strongest game, but they still had enough depth to win," said veteran co-coach Sheila Coleman.

The Spartans scored 13 points in the final quarter to break a 15-15 tie.

Michelle Gilroy, Lori Gianoulos, and Melissa Gilroy each went to the hoop for eight points for the Spartans.

Nicole Bardell had two points, with Stephenie Summerhill and Amy Sled adding a point apiece.

Ann Ferguson, Jen Cowley, Mandy Stewart, Cheryl Jackson, and Andrea Wilson provided the Spartans with outstanding defence.

The senior Spartans bested their Sutton opponents 32-26.

Andrea Crothers picked up 12 points to head up the offence.

Erin Blenkhorn had five points, while Christie Henderson, Melissa Austin, Julia Johnstone, Jen McGowan, and Leanna Milos chipped in with points as well.

It was the first time ever the Stouffville school has taken all three basketball crowns.

The three SDSS squads will go for their respective DYS-SAA titles as the Stouffville school plays host to the Durham-York championships this weekend.

The seniors were to lead off Friday evening against Brock H.S.

The midget Spartans take on Exeter S.S. today at 10:30 a.m., while the juniors play Brock at 2 p.m. this afternoon.

The finals go from 4-9 p.m. today.
