Museum offers Christmas workshops for children

MUSEUM WORKSHOP Children aged eight and up are invited to attend Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum's Christmas workshops where they will learn how to make unique old-fashioned ornaments, cards and wreaths through the use of paper piercing, quilling and seeding.

Ornament-making workshops will be held Tuesday, Dec. 21 and workshops for wreaths and cards will be held Wednesday, Dec. 22.

The cost is $5 for one workshop or $9 for both. For more information call 727-8954.

CHOIR MEMBER HONORED Grace Bulley, who has been a member of the choir at Christ Church Anglican for 53 years, was honored for her long service Sunday during a special Women's Day celebration.

Last week, she took on a regal role - that of Queen Victoria - as she poured tea during the church's Christmas bazaar and Victorian tea.

CHRISTMAS IN LEMONVILLE Drop into Lemonville Community Centre this weekend for a great selection of crafts, fashions, baked goods and hand-made wooden gifts, the majority of which are the work of local artisans.

"A lot of the people that will be there have been with me ever since we started four years ago," said organizer Norma Emery.

"It's been building every year and now we're getting a really good response."

Dried flowers, quilts, music boxes, jewellery and children's clothing are just some of the unique items offered for sale.

New this year is a maker of birch reindeer "and we have a lady who does hand-made wedding invitations. We also have a lot of woodwork."

Admission and parking are free and refreshments will be available.

The sale runs Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the community centre, which is located on McCowan Road, just south of Bloomington Sideroad.

BLAIR REPRISES NUTCRACKER ROLE 12-year-old Blair Puente of Stouffville, who is a second-year student at the National Ballet School, will be appearing again this year in the National Ballet's production of The Nutcracker.

Blair will perform his role as one of the children at the National Arts Centre in Ottawa from Dec. 8 to 12, before appearing at the O'Keefe Centre in Toronto for the full Christmas run, from Dec. 14 to Jan. 2.

"He's in both casts, so he'll be dancing in 33 performances altogether," his mother, Cynthia, told The Tribune.

Blair is a former student of Stouffville's DanceCentre and still returns there to take catch-up lessons during holiday periods with DanceCentre director Michele Green. "Michele does a wonderful job with him, she's very supportive and that's really good for him."
