

Bantam Clippers come out on the short end in Stoney Creek

The Edward Murphy bantam Clippers dropped three, one-goal games to bow out of a tournament in Stoney Creek over the weekend.

But the Stouffville squad was successful in two games leading up to the tournament, blasting Newmarket 11-0 in an exhibition game, then defeating Oshawa 3-1 in an Ontario Minor Hockey Association contest.

At Stoney Creek, the Clippers were edged 7-6 by the host team before falling 5-4 to Riverside.

The Clippers were then ousted when they lost an overtime shootout to Whitby in a game that was tied 2-2 after regulation time.

Rob Spytz directed the Clippers with three goals and three assists in the three games.

Among other scorers, Scott Assinck contributed four goals and one assist, Ryan King had a goal and three assists, Craig Wood a goal and two assists, Jason Heyworth three assists, Dan Tardella and Adam Crowder, one goal each, Tim Smart and Matt Turner, one assist each.
