starting the fight against the closures. The letter states that the Liberal party is committed to a moratorium on the closings and that it is opposed to the Conservatives' policy of closure and conversion (to commercial post offices).

HOSPITAL NEWS

Blood donors give the best gift and Markham Stouffville Hospital invites residents to participate in a blood donor clinic Monday, Dec. 13 in the auditorium. Donors can park free of charge by bringing their parking tickets to the front desk for validation. Help light up the hospital's Christmas tree with a $25 donation in honor or memory of someone special. Each donation adds a light to the tree, and recipients of your gift to the hospital will receive a miniature Spiral of Sharing tree ornament and a beautiful card, inscribed in calligraphy. To make your donation, call the foundation office at 472-7059.

GIFTS THAT GIVE

The Care and Share Shoppe on Stouffville's Main Street has some unique and beautiful gift ideas, including wooden toys, musical instruments and nativity sets crafted by Third World artisans. Beautiful hand-made Christmas tree ornaments and cards are also available at the store, which is featuring a 50 per cent reduction in prices on selected lacquer ware and gift baskets from now until Dec. 24.
