

Library News

Boxing week busy time

While the town's all a-glitter and the spotlight is focused relentlessly on the 25th, here at the library we've been concentrating on that anti-climatic aftermath of Christmas, between Boxing Day and the end of the year.

With youngsters out-of-school and adults out-of-patience, it seems like the ideal time to stabilize the festive fallout with an infusion of entertainment. So, here's what we propose as a remedy:

Magic Show

On Wed., Dec. 29 at 2 p.m., Rob Power will bring his fast-paced magic show to the library. All you need to get in to this holiday hocus-pocus is $2 for admittance at the door. To get back out, you might need to know the magic word!

Sled Dogs

He may not be Nanook of the North, but Tim Rogers of Unionville is just as knowledgeable about sled dogs.

On Thursday, Dec. 30 at 2 p.m., one of his purebred Siberian Huskies will be in the traces to help him demonstrate the sport of dog-sledding.

Tim visited our library in October with his red-tailed hawk and gave a fascinating presentation on the bird, its habitat and the sport of falconry. The program on sled dogs, which will outline the history of the sport and demonstrate the operation of the sled and equipment, is sure to be every bit as interesting.

Admission is $1 at the door, so...mush along on the 30th.

Closings

We'd hate you to arrive at the library to check out material over the festive season and find our doors closed. To try and avoid being the target of a few choice words uttered, not in the spirit of goodwill, here's prior warning of our holiday closures: The Library/Gallery will be closed from noon Fri., Dec. 24 until 9 a.m. on Wed., Dec. 29; and from 6 p.m., Fri., Dec. 31 until 9 a.m. on Tues., Jan. 4. Keep in mind that material being returned to the library can be popped into our outdoor drop box. Like our donation box - it's always open for deposits!
