

Clippers win one of three

The Betz Pools Clippers oldtimers hockey team dropped the first two games at a tournament in Huntsville last weekend, but bounced back to blank Coldwater 7-0 in their final outing.

The Clippers fell 5-4 to Elmvalle in its first contest, despite a two-goal effort by Bob McKinnon. Jack Holder and Garth Krisman had the other Clippers goals. Assists went to Ron Cain, Joe Infurnari, and Ralph Cain.

The Clippers were trounced 6-1 by Elmville. Holder had the lone goal from Bruce Woodley.

Gene Emes and John Boyd combined for the shutout against Coldwater. Holder and Jim McKechnie each scored twice, with Wayne McMann, Frank Wildman, and Bruce Woodley adding singles. Lloyd and McKinnon had assists.

the skiers out. Although with the equipment we have, we can make more snow than can fall naturally. We have a capacity for 1,600 gallons a minute."

Lakeridge will employ 170 people on a part time and full time basis this winter. The resort's full-facility ski school, with 70 instructors, will once again cater to families. The nine-week program is open to people from kindergarten age through adults, and there is a snow boarding program as well.

The resort offers a flexible ticket purchase system, with a minimum three hours' pass available. A three-hour beginner package including lift ticket, lessons, and rentals is also available.

With all runs lit, the resort will stay open til 10 p.m. every night but Sunday, when it will close at 6 p.m.

In addition to the outdoor improvements, Lakeridge has added a 1,200 square foot locker room while increasing the rental shop area by 30 per cent. "This will mean virtually no lineups now," said Werner.

Werner said the resort has continued to hold its own in recent years despite an uncertain economy. "Each year we've increased our numbers. It hasn't been a big boom, but we're looking for an increase again this year."

Lakeridge Resort Ltd. is located at the junction of Chalk Lake Rd. and Lakeridge Rd. 23, 19 km. north of Hwy. 2.

Losing weekend for minor novice Clippers

Michael Pickering netted his second hat trick in two weeks, but it wasn't enough as the Birkett-Hassard minor novice Clippers dropped a 7-4 decision to Oshawa last week.

The Stouffville squad then fell 5-1 to Uxbridge Saturday.

Against Oshawa, the Clippers fell behind early, then fought back to within one goal before their opponents clinched the win with a couple of insurance markers.

James Guinane had the fourth Clippers goal.

Assists went to Michael Manson, Bradley Johnson, Jonathan Wonch, Nicholas Hawkins, and Mark Carruthers.

Carruthers had the lone Stouffville goal against Uxbridge, with Derek Wilcock assisting. Six year old Joshua Spang played an aggressive game for the Clippers, holding his own against his larger opponents.

The Clippers are to play in a tournament in Lefroy next weekend.
