tournament in Cannington. Goaltender John Carrick recorded three straight shutouts for the A & S Construction Flames in SAHL play in November.

DECEMBER

Rob Spytz's overtime goal in the final game gave the bantam Clippers the championship in their own tournament at the Rec Centre. The major novice Clippers took the consolation championship at a tournament in Beaverton as Jordan Mabley scored seven goals in three games. The major atom Clippers were edged in overtime in the title match of a tourney in East Gwillimbury.

Stouffville's Paul Popovich captured the silver medal in the 86 kilogram division at the Ontario Open Judo Championships in Toronto.

The Stouffville Fitness Centre opened its doors to males after being an all-female operation since its inception in 1991.

Sarah Cliff was the first female to cross the finish line at the five kilometre Santa Claus Shuffle held at Toronto's Sunnybrook Park. Cliff was 30th overall out of 230 runners.

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO STAN DREVENSEK?

It seems that many Markham residents are wondering "Whatever happened to Stan Drevensek?", former owner/auto painter at Stan's Power Paint. For 16 years he could be counted on for quality service and fine workmanship at the Locust Hill automotive paint shop - but then he was gone.

You'll be happy to know that Stan Drevensek is alive and well and working at Longman's Collision Centre. In fact, for the two years since he left the Locust Hill shop, Stan has been continuing his quality service at Longman's, and he would like to invite his former clients to visit him at the Laidlaw Blvd. shop.

Combined with the new body shop manager, Brian Randall, the management team at Longman's Collision Centre offers 50 years combined automotive experience. Drop by for an estimate, and Longman's is offering a free auto clipboard to the first 100 customers. In addition, receive a 10 per cent discount on all body and paint repairs to a limit of $250.00. Seniors' discount is also available.

The management team at Longman's Collision Centre would like to take this opportunity to thank all of their customers past and present for their support, and extend season's greetings and best wishes for 1994!

Hockey schoolers hit the ice for holiday tournament

Ian Martin, of the Stars, passes the puck off to teammate Mark Sullivan during action at Wednesday's Whitchurch-Stouffville Minor Hockey Association hockey school tournament at the Recreation Centre. The Stars were playing the Rangers in this match which was won 7-6 by the Stars. The tournament is for members of the association's hockey school, and their ages range from 4 to 7 years old. The Recreation Centre was busy during the week with a number of hockey tournaments.

CHRIS MAYBURY

The Rochester Institute of Technology hockey club is glad to have Chris Maybury around.

The 20-year-old Markham resident made a major contribution for the Tigers' hockey club recently by scoring four goals and adding two assists to lead Rochester Institute of Technology to a 10-7 road win over Mercyhurst College.

That performance enabled Maybury to earn the US Air/ECAC West Player of the Week honors.

Maybury presently leads the Tigers in scoring with eight goals and 17 assists.
