Jets douse Flames in SAHL action

Move over John Carrick. Richard Bartley displaced Carrick as the leading goaltender in the Stouffville Amateur Hockey League's (SAHL) 30 and Over division when he and his G & R Flooring Jets blanked Carrick's A & S Construction Flames 3-0 in Sunday's battle of the backstops.

Bartley, who is enjoying his best ever SAHL season, went into the contest having allowed just one more goal than Carrick. He is now two goals ahead of the goaltender known as "Mr. Zero" in SAHL circles.

Scott Conner, Tedd Pickering, and Glen Gibson provided the firepower for the Jets.

Elsewhere, Al McNaught and Jim McKechnie each netted a pair of goals, and Jack Holder added a solo marker, to lift the Villeneuve Heating Flyers to a 5-2 victory over the May Real Estate Whalers.

Phil Pirie and Don Barnes had the Whalers goals. Wayne McMann and Bob Nicholls each found the target to help the Spring Lakes Nordiques slip past the Gallo Real Estate (Sherri Hayes) Red Wings 2-1.

George Sled slid the puck into the net for the lone Wings score.

It was Pat Madigan, Bob Hughes, and the ever dangerous Sandy McKenzie lighting the lamp for the Boyd's Sports Sharks in a 3-2 win over the Hunter's Nest North Stars.

Rick Glen and Mark Fockler replied for the Stars.

Rob Barber, Bill Housser, Marty Ellis, Barry Gill, and Doug Taylor each scored to give the Village Landscaping Capitals a 5-1 triumph over the Stomark Rental Kings.

Darcy Milligan clicked for the Kings. The Occasions Catering Blues got two goals from Andy Perley, and singles off the sticks of Dale Vick, Bill Ormson, John Visser, as they downed the Smurthwaite Heating Bruins by a 5-1 count.

Don Lloyd countered for the Bruins. Terry Weatherill potted a pair for the Rand Pools Maple Leafs, and Art Nicholson added a solo, in a 3-3 tie with the Stouffville Travel Black Hawks.

Bob McKinnon, Dave Tucker, and Damian Comito had the Hawks goals.

Major peewee Clippers drop two

It was an off weekend for the Markham Stouffville Credit Union major peewee Clippers, as the Stouffville team dropped a pair of Ontario Minor Hockey Association games.

The Clippers were edged 2-1 by the Oshawa Black Hawks in a hard hitting affair at the Rec Centre Saturday night.

Stouffville's lone goal came from Chris Howland on a laser-like slap shot from the point.

Sunday night against Markham, the short staffed Stouffville squad fell 5-1.

Brett Boyd netted the lone Clippers' score, with assists going to Dan Thompson and Chris Johnstone.

DON VALLEY NORTH LEXUS - TOYOTA ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

BRIAN CROWLEY

Brian Crowley made a major contribution in helping his Markham Waxers' hockey club defeat the archrival Newmarket 87s 5-3 on Sunday.

The 6-foot-3, 190-pound veteran left winger was in on all five goals as he scored twice and added three assists.

In the club's 7-6 loss to Ajax on Friday, Crowley also scored once. Crowley, 18, is scheduled to attend Brown University in Rhode Island next year.
