Mobility Transit grateful to Stouffville residents for support, donations

Dear Editor:
The Board of Directors of The Whitchurch-Stouffville Mobility Transit would like to thank those who helped make our first barbecue on June 5 successful. We were celebrating the fact that Mobility Transit has become a reality in our town. The celebration of this achievement took place in National Access Awareness Week so we honored groups and/or individuals within our community by presenting two types of awards for access and appreciation. These were given out by members of the eligibility committee and the directors.

A special award was presented from our community to John Gilham of the North Durham Alternative Housing Committee. They are working on a project that may offer the option of 24-hour attendant care to residents within a housing unit.
Another special award went to Tom Parry of the engineering department for his untiring efforts as part of the WSMT committee.

We would like to offer special thanks to those who entertained us on the afternoon of June 5. Bob Davies as the travelling troubadour, the Bradley family of Vandorf and the choir of Music Mania offered a variety of musical selections. The Grove family of Bloomington provided horse driven carriage rides.

We greatly appreciate the response from churches, which publicized this event.
Although this celebration was not planned as a fundraiser we did realize approximately $800. This was due to the fact that you came and that generous donations were made by Jim Richards of Strano Foods, Harvey Reid of Corporate Foods Ltd., Cathy Stewart of Parkview Home, Bruce Lecraw of A&P, Phil Barker of IGA, T&R Donuts, Country Club Donuts, Coffee Way and Tim Horton's.
