

Generation X's John Lord hits '20'

CURMUDGEON COMES

OF AGE John Lord insists he's about to be 20 and he's holding a celebration to prove it. Lord, who swears he got caught in a time warp which accelerated his aging process and made him look, say, 25, is holding a book sale and serving refreshments to celebrate the 20th anniversary of John Lord's Books. The sale applies not only to visiting customers, but also to people on his mailing list, which goes to subscribers around the world. Delectable refreshments will be served at the store July 1 and 2 to mark this auspicious occasion. John Lord's Books started out across the street from its current location, to which Lord and his faithful feline moved in 1981. "Back then," he ruminated, "it was just me and Alfie Q. Pussycat." Alas, Alfie met his untimely demise under the wheels of a vehicle in 1982 and Lord eventually replaced him with a noble staff who have several things in common.

They know and love books, they talk a lot and they can all tolerate working for an elderly, proudly politically incorrect and unrepentantly crusty representative of Generation X. Congratulations to Lord and commiserations to Jim Bolton, Doug Miller (aka Baldrick), Kathy Brillinger and Alan Gilbert.

KINETTES ELECT OFFICERS The Kinette Club of Stouffville held its end-of-year dinner June 13 at Trattoria Brava. During the evening the club elected the following executive for 1994/95: president: Debbie Boyd; vice-president: Carol Kidd; secretary: Karen McLeod; treasurer: Sue Smith; registrar: Heather Howkins; past-president Mary Marshall. Members would like to thank the residents of Whitchurch-Stouffville for their support during the year and look forward to providing continued service to the community. New members are always welcome. For more information call 640-3713.

IT'S A GIRL Former Summitview teacher Karen Attridge gave birth to a daughter, Kiera Leigh, on Sunday June 12. Attridge, who had been on the staff of Summitview for a number of years, left at the end of the 1992/93 school year and moved to Belleville with her husband, Kevin Dinsmore.

She returned at the end of last month to attend a baby shower, hosted by Sue Stapley and attended by other former staff members including Ed Warlow, Joan Gordon and Bianca Creek. Kiera weighed in at a healthy 7 pounds 8 ounces and mother and baby are doing fine.
