Dedicated to access

Victoria Square United Church on Woodbine Ave. in Markham celebrated the dedication of its easy access addition recently. The church's addition is designed for those in wheelchairs; that they too may enter through the main doors. At the ceremony are from left, Rev. Douglas Whidden, Rev. Alfred Day and Rev. Alan McLean, all former ministers. There are ramps to the sanctuary and the lower auditorium so that those in wheelchairs have access to every room in the building. Other dignitaries at the ceremony were Rev. Valerie Reed, chair of the York Presbytery and Markham MPP Donald Cousens. Chairman of the building committee was Neil Mortson.
