Follow course to leadership

A 10-session program designed to increase leadership skills and awareness of communities local issues is being offered on Tuesday evenings between 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. beginning March 2 for community-minded residents of York Region. Evening sessions will be hosted in various locations of the region.

10 Steps to Community Action is a locally designed leadership development program for emerging community leaders in York Region. The 10 Steps Program will build self-confidence and leadership skills, give participants "hands-on" experience in all facets of community organization, provide the expertise to help organizations run more effectively to meet their goals and help networks across York Region for future community action.

Funded through the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food and the Industrial Training Committee for North York and York Region, the program was developed to benefit participants through personal growth and development.

The cost of the program is $107 (includes GST) per participant. The fee includes all 10 sessions, materials and an overnight retreat at Georgina Inn. Registration is limited to 25 participants. To apply or for further information, contact Program Coordinator, Lauri Prest at 642-3899 or 1-800-263-3241.
