Medieval merriment

Grade 4 students at William Armstrong Public School converted their portable classroom into a castle Wednesday and dug into lunch using the customs of the day - hands on so to speak. The students and teachers used the medieval feast to culminate studies on the theme of kings, queens and serfs in the feudal system in Britain's Middle Ages. Participants included teacher Sue Mullin, Casey Dowd, Charlie Angello, Braedon Sharp, Melissa Nichols, and Christy Hinde.
