DON'T OPEN YOUR HOOD TO STRANGERS

Having a bowl

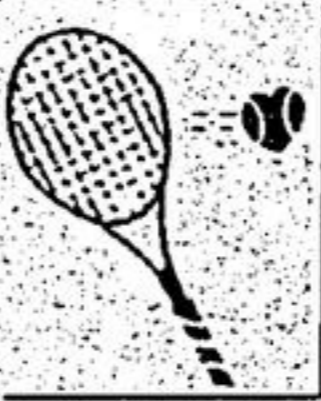

Debbie Miller, far left, lets go of a bowling ball as Karen Spencer looks on. Residents of Participation House in Markham visited the Stouffville Bowling Lanes on Feb. 3. The lanes are wheelchair accessible.

English class for newcomers

Are you or do you know of a new immigrant over the age of 16 living in York Region (including Uxbridge and Bradford) who wants to learn English? Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada is an English-as-a-second-language training program. This program offers cultural orientation, life skills training and supportive counselling to newcomers while they learn English. Free child care is on-site and a transportation allowance is available. This program is funded by Employment and Immigration Canada and provided by COSTI-IAS, York Region Roman Catholic Separate School board and Catholic Community Services of York Region. Classes are held at 5300 14th Ave., Markham. For an interview, call 472-4688 or 472-5583.

Take your heart to court.

Or on a bike ride. Or out for a walk.

Whatever your sport, vigorous physical activity can help keep your heart healthy.

Improving your odds against Canada's #1 killer.
