Maples of Ballantrae hosts murder mystery

KATE GILDERDALE
Correspondent

Murder and mayhem in Ballantrae.

That's the prospect for dinner guests at the Maples of Ballantrae on the evening of Saturday, March 6, when Red Barn Theatre presents its murder mystery Till Death Do Us Part. "The setting of this murder mystery is a wedding," explained the Maples' Trish Dickson.

Participants become guests at the wedding, and meet the family party in the receiving line before sitting down to a three course meal.

"There may be some clues in the receiving line, and clues will also be given throughout the dinner," said Dickson.

"The actors and actresses at the head table will come into the audience during the evening, encouraging participation and giving clues."

It's the first time the Maples of Ballantrae has hosted a murder mystery, and if this one is well received they hope to present another later this year. Tickets are $35 each, and include a three course dinner and the show.

Man charged in connection with robbery

A Markham man is charged in connection with the theft of boots and western clothing from a Stouffville store.

Western Corral Boot World on Woodbine Ave. was broken into last Dec. 12 after a brick was thrown through the front door. More than $9,000 in coats, jeans and boot were reported missing.

Police arrested a 21-year-old Springfield Dr. man Thursday.
