MS Hospital gala features dancing, dining, bidding

KATE GILDERDALE
Correspondent

Put on your dancing shoes and dance the night away at Markham Stouffville Hospital's spectacular fund-raising gala.

This year the emphasis is on music and dancing, with The Original Little Caesar and The Consuls rocking up a storm, while Eddie Graf and his Orchestra add their big band sound.

The gala begins at 6 p.m. on Friday, April 2 at Le Parc with dinner and dancing until 1 a.m.

Need to catch your breath? Stroll around and look at the many wonderful items featured in the silent and live auctions.

Among the live auction goodies are tickets for musical Miss Saigon, with one night's accommodation for two at the Four Seasons Yorkville. The lucky bidders will be transported to and from the theatre by limousine.

On the block for the silent auction are a coyote and fox fur coat from Elizabeth Furs, a Sundance balloon ride, a family sitting and finished portrait courtesy of Ronald Miller Photography and a chance for your child to enjoy a week at the Muskoka Woods Sports Resort.

Despite rising costs, tickets for the gala are $207 each, including GST, which represents an increase of $7. And everyone who attends will be eligible to win one of the door prizes, which include two tickets to next year's gala. Tables of ten can be booked in advance by calling the foundation office.

Markham Stouffville Hospital Foundation welcomes donations of prizes from local businesses and individuals. Items for auction will be displayed by staff from The Latcham Gallery and each donor will be recognized in the display and in the program.

"You felt you were in downtown Toronto at something really spectacular," observed Sandy Betz, who attended the gala for the first time last year with her husband Marvin.

"I would certainly not think twice about attending again," she added.

It's a fantastic night of entertainment and fun for a truly worthwhile cause. A tax receipt for the maximum amount will be issued to ticket holders following the event.

For tickets and information, call the foundation office at 472-7059.
