

Space carnival for kids during March break

Out-of-schoolers can blast off for fun with the library's Space Carnival, March 15 to 19.

The Carnival rockets into action with live theatre, musicians, puppets, mime artists, a movie and a magician, as well as drawing and craft contests. A $10 passport, for admittance to all eight scheduled shows, is presently available at the library; otherwise a $2 entrance fee, for each performance, may be paid at the door. Passport holders are given priority of entrance. Programs listing the Space Carnival events may be obtained at the checkout counter.

Spring Programs

The winter schedule of children's programs ended this week, spawning interest in the spring sessions which run from mid-April to June.

Registrations are now being accepted for:
 Story Hour: for 3-4 years olds - $30
 Musical Discoveries: for 3-4 year olds - $30
 Craft: for 4-5 year olds - $40
 (includes material)
 Babysitting: for 12 years olds and over - $30
 All the above programs are held once a week and each course comprises eight, 1-hour sessions.
 For information call 640-2395.
