Holly and Tim Garbutt earn equestrian honors

A Stouffville brother/sister combination returned home with a saddlebag full of awards after last weekend's annual Canadian Morgan Horse Convention in Mississauga.

Holly Garbutt, 18, was named the Ontario Morgan Horse Association's High Point winner for the year in the Ontario Youth English Pleasure category. Holly was also named Youth English Pleasure champion for the Canadian Zone 2, and reserve champion in Youth Pleasure Driving. She was third in the Ontario association's Saddle

Seat Equitation category.

Tim Garbutt, 15, was named the Ontario association's reserve champion in both Hunt Seat Equitation and Youth Hunter Pleasure. He was fourth in Showmanship in the Ontario Open division, and sixth in Showmanship in the Morgan division.

Holly was re-elected secretary of the Canadian Morgan Horse Association Youth at the convention. She is also president of the Just-In Ontario Youth Club.
