

Hospital gala .....over the top

Chief of Staff Dr. Jim McLean throws his soul into a lip sync version of Silhouettes' on the Shade. The "Nylons" made a special surprise visit to the gala stage. The back-up band resembled Glenn Crosby, Dick Cohen and Damlan Bassett, all on the hospital board. The 1993 Markham Stouffville Hospital gala drew more than 600 guests and although final figures are not yet available, the event exceeded last years' gala at $83,600. Organizers attribute the extra boost to a raffle, won by a nurse, Kathy Line. When called to be told she'd won the use of a Saturn for a year, she thought it was an April Fool's joke.

Dr. Robert Gall, Chief of Obstetrics, wears a kilt and surveys the hundreds of items and services items donated by local businesses for silent auction at the Markham Stouffville Hospital gala Friday.
