CHOIR HITS RIGHT NOTE
The York Region Children's Chorus, of which 12 year old Brooke Maddock of Stouffville is a member, is busy with a hectic spring schedule. The chorus performed with the York Symphony Orchestra and the York Symphony Youth Orchestra at Aurora High School and Markham Theatre at the end of March. The students, who range in age from 10 to 15, were awarded a gold standard for their performance at the Ontario Vocal Festival on March 5 and received a standing ovation during a mini concert that evening. Upcoming performances include a spring concert at the Metropolitan United Church, Toronto, on May 1, the Heritage School House opening celebration on Woodbine Ave. on May 6. The chorus will also be featured at the Arts York Camp between June 5 and 12 and members have been invited to act as Canadian Ambassadors at the Finnish Choir performance at St. Mary's Anglican Church in Richmond Hill in June.

FILM AND RAIL FUN
Something in Common, at 34 Civic Ave., held the first meeting of its Video Viewers' Club last Wednesday with a selection of National Film Board Shorts. The club is designed for people interested in foreign and alternative films, and is open to members only. New members are welcome to join at any time. For more information, call 642-5177. The store is also hosting a York-Durham Heritage Railway members' evening tonight (Wednesday) at 8 p.m. Topics include ideas for a proposed tourist railway and the organization's summer events.

VIOLINIST ON TV
Stouffville's Adam Rochacewich, 14, was among the young musicians featured in a special on CKVR Television Sunday, April 4. Adam, winner of the intermediate string division at last year's Central Ontario Kiwanis Music Festival, attended the taping of the program last November. He is currently taking grade seven at
