

Kellingtons oldtimers ice Newmarket tourney

It took an overtime shootout to do it, but the Kellington's Old Timers hockey team won the Royal Wood Shop division title at the Newmarket Rays Hockey Tournament over the Easter weekend.

The Kellingtons crew was tied 2-2 with the Bradford Elders after regulation time in Saturday afternoon's championship match up. After a five-minute sudden death overtime period failed to settle the issue, Kellingtons prevailed 3-1 when five shooters from each team were given a shot on goal.

It was Mike Jones, Dave Farlow, and Pete Turner scoring for the Stouffville squad in the shootout, with goalie Dave Miller limiting Bradford to just one goal. Miller was named MVP for the game.

Bill Thornhill and Dave Farlow each had a goal and an assist for Kellingtons in regulation time.

The Kellingtons unit qualified for the final by winning all three of its preliminary round games.

They started out with a 9-2 thumping of Orillia Twin Lakes Thursday evening, defeated Scarbora Second Wind 5-1 Friday, then downed the Bradford Elders 4-2 later the same day.

Action Signs bantams earn third-place honors

The Action Signs Raiders bantam girls' hockey team made waves at the Brampton tournament over the Easter weekend.

Competing against 10 of the best bantam outfits in Ontario, the Raiders placed third.

The Stouffville girls knocked off three formidable foes before falling 3-1 to Ottawa in Sunday's bantam A division semi-final.

The Raiders started off with a 3-0 shutout over Scarborough.

The Stouffville crew then slipped past London by a 3-2 count, before Raiders' goalie Karen Williams recorded her second shut out in a 1-0 win over a team from Chelmsford, Mass.

But the Raiders couldn't quite catch up with their Ottawa opponents in the semis, with an empty net goal sealing their defeat. Stephanie Millius, Jennifer Williams, and Stephanie Summerhill each collected two goals and three assists for the Raiders.

Kim Walsweer and Laura Winterstein both picked up a goal as well.

Nicole Robinson, Lindsay Upton, and Walsweer were credited with assists.

The Stouffville team got a strong effort from the defence corps of Upton, Cynthia McCaul, Walsweer, Katie White, and Lori Howes, who allowed few rebounds to be recovered by opposition shooters.

The Raiders, who are to play an exhibition game tonight at 9:15 at the Rec Centre, are scheduled to compete in the Provincial Championships on the weekend of April 23.
