Town plans to put axe to programs

that don't show now" she said. The town's $12.7 million budget includes $10.6 million for operating expenses, including administration, salaries and maintenance upkeep; and $2 million for capital costs such as infrastructure (water, sewers) and large repairs.

Whitchurch-Stouffville plans to chop many programs this year to keep costs down, including the annual $10,000 fireworks display at Strawberry Festival.

"I don't think sending $10,000 up in smoke will sit well with people during a recession," Sainsbury said.

Centre hosts open house

There will be an open house on April 27 for the York-Durham Aphasia Centre (formerly the Speech & Stroke Centre) at Parkview Village, 12184 the 9th Line, from 9:30-11:30 a.m. or Thurs., April 29 from 1:30-3:30 p.m. Participants are asked to join the group to learn about the communication program for aphasic adults (often stroke survivors) and to learn about the many volunteer roles. For more information call Julie or Ruth at 642-2053.
