

Kozak guest at YSO fundraiser Thursday

In 1991 the York Symphony Orchestra inaugurated an annual Young Artists Festival to encourage the development of young soloists.

This spring, the festival has expanded to extend performing opportunities to young opera singers. Since vocal auditions cover the Greater Toronto Area, this event has turned out to be a showcase for some of the best. Last Saturday night three wonderful singers, Mari Hahn and Adele Kozak, sopranos, and Matthew Thomas, baritone, presented an enjoyable recital program of operatic arias. The soloists are all graduates of the University of Toronto Opera Program doing postgraduate studies and are already veterans of varied operatic performances. They were accompanied by Rachel Andrist, herself of star quality, sympathetically playing the demanding orchestral reductions on the piano.

Kozak will also make a special guest appearance at the upcoming YSO gala dinner/dance where she will sing with the full orchestra. This special fundraising event, entitled Challenge for Charity and cohosted by YSO and the York Region Abuse Program, is on May 27 at La Pineta, in Woodbridge. Tickets are available by calling 881-2886.

Give from the Heart. Your Heart may need it back someday.

When your neighbour stops by this month to collect for the Heart and Stroke Foundation, we hope you'll consider a very special reason to give - your own heart. You see, one out of every four Canadians has some form of circulatory disease. So make an investment in your life and lives near and dear to you. And remember, the more you give, the more we can give back.

Spring is here bringing with it new hope for happiness. At this time, we are fortunate to live in a community of warm and caring people. To celebrate spring, the staff and management of The Economist & Sun and The Stouffville & Uxbridge Tribunes are pleased to announce the introduction of a new service aimed at bringing the people of our community closer together, "Sincerely Yours". Starting as a regular feature on Saturday, May 29th, "Sincerely Yours" will provide an exciting and safe way for people to meet people. Using the latest in computer communications, this service will allow you, our friends and neighbours to discreetly meet others in our community for companionship and friendship. Perhaps one might even find that special someone!

We are all excited and pleased to introduce you to "Sincerely Yours", pick up the next issue for further details.
