DanceCentre's 10th anniversary recital helped by many

Dear Editor,
I would like to thank The Tribune for the fantastic publicity and review of the DanceCentre's 10th anniversary recital which was held June 7 and 8. As this was a special year for the DanceCentre, it is especially nice for the students to be recognized.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many people who helped to make the recital a success. The parents who made sure their child was in the right place at the right time, the class representatives who performed many tasks during the last month and kept things under control backstage, the ushers who volunteered their time; Hank Ruttan, Malcolm Gilderdale, Jim Green and the audience who showed enthusiasm for each dancer. Lastly, I wish to thank the dancers who always prove their dedication and desire to do their best. The flowers were beautiful and the gift I will treasure always.

Library says thanks to all

Dear Editor,
Re: Booksale Fundraiser May 14-16

On behalf of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library, I would like to express our sincere appreciation to The Tribune for your coverage of the 1993 booksale fundraiser.

The response again this year was wonderful with the result that a net profit of more than $3,200 was realized. This is due to: the supportive coverage in your newspaper, the donation of prizes for the raffle, the donation of time by many town folk, the assistance of the Stouffville Lions Club and the Stouffville Boy Scout troupe and the dedication of a hard-working committee who have worked on this event since early January.

To you all, a very sincere thank you.

Thanks for barbecue

Dear Editor,
On June 12, our branch benefited from summer barbecue project of the Stouffville IGA. All hot dogs, buns, condiments, drinks as well as all the tools needed were donated by IGA.

In these times when one often laments the callous business it is refreshing to know there are caring businesses as well, donating generously to various causes.

Come to think of it, the employees of IGA were our good customers as well, I wonder whether Mr. Barker, the friendly manager, encouraged them?

It was also refreshing to see two Stouffville teenagers giving up their Saturday morning to help a good cause. Thank you, Chris and Luke. Chris acted as our very able salesman and got people to buy hot dogs who probably had not eaten one in years. A warm thank you to all our customers.

After 13 years with Williamson Richard Bartley is still waiting to hear if he got the job!

Back in 1980 Richard Bartley was having trouble finding work as a car salesman. Just 18, no one was willing to take a chance on him. Until he approached Williamson. They agreed to try him out for 3 months and see how he does.

Well, no one ever had a chance to get back to Richard... after all he was too busy selling cars. Today Richard is a gold level member of General Motors highly prestigious Sales Marketing Guild and perhaps one of Canada's top salesman.

Recognized by GM for outstanding product knowledge and customer service, he has always subscribed to the theory that if you excel in customer service, the sales will come naturally. And they have.

However Richard's preoccupation with customer service has its price... at times he's become a one-man 24-hour Roadside Assistance program. Helping out customers who've run down their battery, gotten a flat or are in a bind and need to borrow a car. In fact his customers may have logged more kilometers on his car than he has. But it's all part of the job...one that Richard would be happy to do for the rest of his life. Because, as he says, "there's nothing like the look on someone's face when you hand them those keys". And goodness knows, in the past 13 years he's seen that look a lot.
