Baby beauties sought for festival competition

FESTIVAL SEEKS BONNY BABIES: There's still time to register your youngster in the Strawberry Festival Baby Contest, which takes place Thursday, July 1 at 10 a.m. at the pavilion in Memorial Park. The contest, sponsored by the Stouffville Progress Club, is open to babies born between April 1, 1992 and March 31, 1993.

Entrants must be residents of Whitchurch-Stouffville and registrations must be received no later than June 28. Parents of participants are asked to donate non-perishable food items to the Whitchurch-Stouffville Food Bank. For more information, please call 640-6518.

WHERE'S THE BEEF?: Tickets for the Stouffville Lions' Strawberry Festival Beef Barbecue, which takes place Wednesday, June 30 at 5 p.m. in Memorial Park, can be purchased in advance at Scotia Bank, Stouffville Co-op, Toronto Dominion Bank and Chas. Richards and Sons. They will also be available at the park. The cost is $8 for adults, $6 for seniors and $5 for children, and dessert and beverage are included. Also available for children is the $3 dinner which includes hot dog, drink and dessert. All proceeds go to community projects.

STUDENTS HONORED: Three students at Orchard Park Public School were among the winners of the first Tom Tittel Youth Award, given to those who provide good role models in their schools and who show good citizenship. The award was named for Mr. Tittel, who worked for the York Region Separate School Board as a guidance department head and consultant and who passed away suddenly in January. He was instrumental in introducing guidance as an essential element in area schools
