

ST Indians downed in consolation semis

The Stouffville major mosquito Indians went all the way to the consolation semi-finals at the recent Ajax baseball tournament.

The Indians split their two preliminary contests, defeating the Ajax Spartans 11-1 and losing 10-7 to Orono.

But the Indians couldn't contain Hamilton Mahoney Park in the consolation semis, as they fell 8-5.

Blair Cain had four hits, including a double and a triple, and was named MVP for the Indians in their win over Ajax. Rob Howie, Nick Straughan, and Ethan Fleming socked doubles.

The Indians fell behind early against Orono, but rallied to make it close. Brenton James earned the MVP nod for Stouffville.

The Indians held a 5-4 lead in the fifth inning of the semi-final contest, with Jonathan Rogalski, James, and Cain delivering key hits. Straughan and Mike Vardervoort combined for 11 strikeouts. But the Hamilton squad scored three runs in the seventh to win it.

In league play, the Indians trounced Maple 19-1. Cain blasted a homer and a double, Rogalski banged a triple, and Fleming, who had four RBI's, had a double. Starter Brenton James and reliever Noah Laird shut down the Maple offence.

White gains recognition

Musselman's Lake resident Angela White received two awards at the annual Newmarket Stingrays Swim Club awards banquet June 11.

White, 16, was given the Sue Tomlinson Memorial Award, which goes to the club swimmer who has demonstrated good fellowship, sportsmanship, accomplishment in swimming, dedication, community involvement, and academic achievement. Tomlinson was a swimming parent from Whitchurch-Stouffville who died several years ago.

White also took the Swim-A-Thon award, for raising the most pledges for the York County Hospital fund.
