PREVAILING SICKNESS.—The most prevalent complaints at this season are rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, inflammations and congestions. For all these and other painful troubles Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best internal and external remedy.

The ministers of St. Thomas have entered into an agreement not to officiate at a funeral on Sunday unless a health official certifies that the interment is necessary, and will not even in such cases officiate if a band accompanies the funeral cortege.

AN EXCELLENT REMEDY.—GENTLEMEN—We have used Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam in our house for over three years, and find it an excellent remedy for all forms of coughs and colds in throat and lung troubles it affords instant relief. JOHN BRODIE, Columbus, Ont.

An oyster supper was held at A. E. Paisley's on Fair-view Ave. on Friday evening of last week at which a happy company assembled and enjoyed themselves very much. The evening was pleasantly spent in social conversation interspersed with vocal and instumental music.

BLOOMINGTON.

A well attended temperance meeting took place last Wednesday evening in the Christian church under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Societies. Stirring addresses were delivered by Revs. Halnor, Stewart and Reid, interspersed by singing and lively remarks from the chairman. Philip Jones. At the close of the meeting the following resolution was moved by Samuel Clarkson and seconded by W. J. Allison and unanimously carried. "Whereas the electors of this province are called upon on Jan. 1st, 1894, to record their votes for or against the prohibiting of the liquor traffic; Resolved that this union meeting of Christian Endeavor workers of Bloomington pledges itself to use its best endeavor both individually and collectively, to secure the largest possible vote in condemnation of that sin against God and crime against man, the organized liquor traffic of this land. And furthermore we agree to make the prohibition of this great evil a subject of prayer to Almighty God that He will so influence the hearts of men that every christian will vote as he prays, for the suppression of this giant moral evil."

The following poem was composed by Miss Jessie Sage, a pupil of Bloomington school:—

STOUFFVILLE MARKET DAY.

What means all this hurry we pray?
Why it is Stouffville Market Day
And people as they hurry by
With produce to the market fly.

[illegible] round just once a
[illegible] market we do seek,
[illegible] is in the hall
[illegible] both great and
[illegible] the market fly,
[illegible] all those who buy
[illegible] butter sweet,
[illegible] up neat.

Some go to hurry some to sell
And some just [illegible] well,
And some of the children by the hand
Help to make up this stately band.

We often with our friends can meet
As we hurry along the street
And often with them stop to talk
Or else turn back with them to walk.
The people hurry along the street,
And horses stand with tired feet,
With eager eyes they watch and wait,
To see their master, if he's late.
The shops are almost always full,
At Mr. Spofford's time's not dull
Into his shop people co ning
Keep his clerks forever running
[illegible] and some will
tease,
Because the prices are so low,
Thus discontented home they go
And now they leave and hasten home
Some far away but not to Rome,
And with the sun's last shining ray
Thus ends the Stouffville Market Day.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Rescued Their Child from Scrofula.

For Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all other foul humors in the blood of children or adults, Hood's Sarsaparilla is an unequalled remedy. Read this:

"We are so thankful to Hood's Sarsaparilla for what it did for our little girl that we make this statement for the benefit of other anxious parents and

Suffering Children

Our girl was a beautiful baby, fair and plump and healthy. But when she was two years old, sores broke out behind her ears and spread rapidly over her head and forehead down to her eyes, and into her neck. We consulted one of the best physicians in Brooklyn, but nothing did her any good. The doctors said it was caused by a scrofula humor in the blood. Her head became

One Complete Sore

offensive to the smell and dreadful to look at. Her general health waned and she would lay in a large chair all day, without any life or energy. The sores caused great itching and burning, so that at times we had to restrain her hands to prevent scratching. For 3 years she suffered fearfully with this terrible humor. Being urged to try Hood's Sarsaparilla we did so. We soon noticed that she had more life and appetite. The medicine seemed to drive out more of the humor for a short time, but it soon began to subside, the itching and burning ceased, and in a few months her head became entirely clear of the sore. She is now perfectly well, has no evidence of the humor, and her skin is clear and healthy. She seems like an entirely different child, in health and general appearance, from what she was before taking

THE PLEBISCITE.

At the Prohibition Convention held in Aurora Oct. 31st, C. Wilson and J. C. Wallace were appointed to organize Whitchurch township for the plebiscite campaign. Accordingly a meeting was held for the purpose at Vandorf Nov. 18. Mr. Wilson opened the meeting with singing and prayer. The appointment of president and secretary followed. A. Bogart, Bogart town was appointed president and J. C. Wallace, White Rose, Secretary. After the taking of the chair by the president, the following committees from each polling division with power to add to their number were appointed:—Polling division No. 1.—David Preity, Bethesda, convener. N. Powell, J. Fisher, Jos. Brown, P. Silversides, B. Stephenson; Polling division No. 2, A. Steckley, Bethesda, Convener, Thomas Maghon, Mr. Rayner, Mr. White, Rev. Learoyd. Polling division No. 3—P. Jones, Bloomington, Convener—Mr. Raymer, Mr. Allison, Mr. Fockler. Polling division No. 4—A. E. Starr, Newmarket, Wm. Reynolds, George Rose, Wm. Willis. Polling Division No. 5—W. T. Playtor, Pine Orchard, convener, A. Skinner, C. Willson, E. McMillan, D. Evans. Polling division No. 6.—G. Johnston Ballantine, convener, John A McLean, L. Sowdon, S. Oldham, E. Pryne, Wm. Hill, T. Dougherty, Wm. Rich.

The following resolutions were unanimously carried:—

As $25 was the sum levied on Whitchurch township to help defray the expenses of York County, each polling division of this township is requested to contribute $4.20, this money to be sent to F. C. Wallace, White Rose, on or before Nov. 27th.

That the committee be instructed to procure enough canvass of each polling subdivision and see that the voters are on the polls on Jan. 1st, 1894.

That we commend to conveners of these committees the organization of a series of Gospel Temperance meetings at each church and suitable place of meeting in the township.

Meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

H. WALLACE, Sec.-Treas.

To the Editor of the TRIBUNE.—Having patiently awaited the closing of the great Columbian Exposition and the return of the last one of our Stouffville visitors to its, in the vain hope some one of them would through the columns of our valuable local paper, kindly give us an outline of the wonderful things on exhibition We now take up our pen to try and touch afresh the springs of their enthusiasm and prompt a giving out of a small fraction of their hoarded treasury of knowledge to help brighten up the dull autumn evenings of their less favored neighbors.

We do not expect any one article to contain a very detailed account of an exhibit of such magnitude and grandeur. For we are prone to think after each one of our visitors had exhausted their descriptive abilities, it might be said in the language of the Queen of Sheba, after her visit to King Solomon "The half has not yet been told".

But it would seem as if a week or fortnight spent in viewing the aggregated glory of the nations, must result in an increased conception of practical ideas, that should not be hidden away in the secret recesses of the brain, but be made useful in forwarding respectively, our moral, secular or religious projects, or at least enable the sight-seer to give interesting glimpses of life and its associations beyond the horizon of the multitude's limited travels. Yet we all are more or less creatures of sentiment. We behold beauty and utility with delight, and then go our way and forget the mighty power producing it, and that it is our privilege to appropriate the good and useful thought of others in all our relations with the world.

However we will continue to hope on that our "treat" is awaiting us in the future. For we are quite sure if kind fortune should ever stupendent our imagination of a World's Fair by real Aunt Samantha privileges; we will not like many others, be so overwhelmed with the multitude of things seen of our pleasant and varied experiences.

But, while we tarry on earth, we are the subjects of many disappointments. Then it is wise to cultivate a philosophic inclination of mind so if never privileged with the sight of a city of crystal palaces, or an ascent in this life as high as the Ferris Wheel promises we have not the humiliation of an equally rapid descent to the common place duties of life in a weather beaten cottage.

And if we are not permitted to witness the play of an Electrical fountain as it almost out rivals the condensed battery of nature let loose in a thunder storm, we can console ourselves with the thought it is not so hard to come down to the use of a simple tallow dip at home or try to keep square on the side walks these dark muddy evenings without the aid of a few street lamps.

And although not privileged to learn in a Convention of Religions the many mangiven doctrines claimed to be essential to the divine favor; we can learn in the good book at home of a royal road to the Haven of Rest, so simple to the understanding "The wayfaring man though a fool, need not err therein".

Fearing I may trospass on valuable space I will now close, hoping the above hints may find a response from some generous brain

Yours &c.

The Standard Rotary Shuttle Leads Them All

There ain't no use in talking
If you want a good machine.
You ought to buy the Standard
It's the best you ever seen.
The viberatin fellers
All look on it with a grin,
A sayen them that buys it
Will be sadly taken in.
An' you will see in this 'ere instance
That there sayin' is not true,
For the Standard is a boomin'
And we're bound to see it through.
So taint no use in talkin',
If you want the best machine,
You'll have to buy the Standard
And we are sayin' what we mean.
So this is the way with agents of old style machines. They still try to make people believe their old vibratoro are best, but when the Standard Rotary Shuttle is shown to the people it knocks the bottom out of all their statements and establishes the fact that the Standard is the best on earth.
