Bantam ball team says thanks

Dear Editor,
Once again the people of Stouffville dig deep when it comes to helping kids.

working the PA system, Terry Ness and Wayne (Moon) Pennan for taking the "hat" around, Tom Brillinger for supplying the PA on such short notice and of course what game would be complete without the umpires, Debbie Serman behind the plate and the base umpire, who we are sorry don't know his name.

The coaching staff of the Stouffville Bantams Rep Team would like to thank all of those who generously gave when the hat was passed during the exhibition game against the "old" juniors during the Strawberry Festival.

Plus once again thanks to the people of Stouffville for their generous support, if we do make it to the Summer Games we will try to make you proud.

We would also like to thank all the "old" juniors who taught our players they still have some things to learn and they haven't quite reached their peak yet.

We would also like to thank a few of the other people who helped out. Gord Ness for

Donation of watercolor painting appreciated by Latcham Gallery

Dear Editor,
The Latcham Gallery wishes to express their appreciation to Mr. James Bessey for his continued support and his donation of the watercolor The Red Door for our recent raffle.

The lucky winner is Joanne Harris of Stouffville.
Special thanks to everyone who supported this important fund raiser.
