Search for Santa next Saturday at the library

Christmas Treat

Annie and Mo will search for Santa in the library on Saturday, Dec. 17 at 2:30 p.m.

While they're searching, they intend to have a rollicking good time and they would like children from this area to join in the festive fun.

Annie and Mo Search for Santa is an hour-long musical theatre program that the library is presenting as a pre-Christmas treat to the youngsters in town. The show will be as full of surprises as Santa's sack and best of all it's free of charge.

Annie and Mo are Ann Drewery and Maureen Harvey, a talented two-some from Durham Region who have combined their musical interests to showcase entertainment for children.

Their Search for Santa features a variety of instruments, traditional Christmas songs as well as their own compositions and what children love most, a chance to be part of the action.

Christmas Craft

While on the subject of festive fun for children, here's a reminder that we are still looking for entries for our miniature Santa Claus Parade.

All you need to do is decorate a shoe box (or box of similar size) to look like a Christmas float and bring it to the library anytime before Dec. 23, when judging will take place. Name, age and phone number should be written on the bottom of the box.

Christmas Closing

We want to give our patrons adequate notice of the library's hours of operation over the festive season so that they can arrange for pickup of reading material without encountering a closed door.

The library will close from noon Friday, Dec.

23 through Wednesday, Dec. 28 at 9 a.m.

If any library material has to be returned over the holidays, remember there is a drop box beside the front entrance.

It's always open!
