Just Desserts offers ambience and mouth-watering treats

Desserts are a great treat any time of the year and now Markham is home to one of the city's most popular cafe chains.

Just Desserts opened its doors on Hwy. 7 near Main Street Markham just last September. General manager David Kopman says they've come with the intention of "injecting a little life into the area and the hope that the rest of the street and area will follow suit."

Open until midnight Monday to Wednesday (and Sunday) and until 1 a.m. Thursday to Saturday, Kopman hopes late night business in the area will be kindled but adds that weekend evenings are already busy.

"Markham's a highly residential area but we felt people who live in the area were looking for a spot to come to that was close to home after a night out in downtown Toronto," says Kopman. "We fill that gap and as the town develops hopefully there'll be more entertainment venues to generate even more business in the area."

In fact, many people like to wind down an evening out with a special coffee, dessert and some good old-fashioned conversation. Just Desserts provides the space for just that.

The 2,000 sq. ft. cafe location, an old renovated house, was a space that owner Gail Levine "fell in love with."

Warmly lit with wood floors and high ceilings, the cafe is somewhat of a departure from other Just Dessert locations.

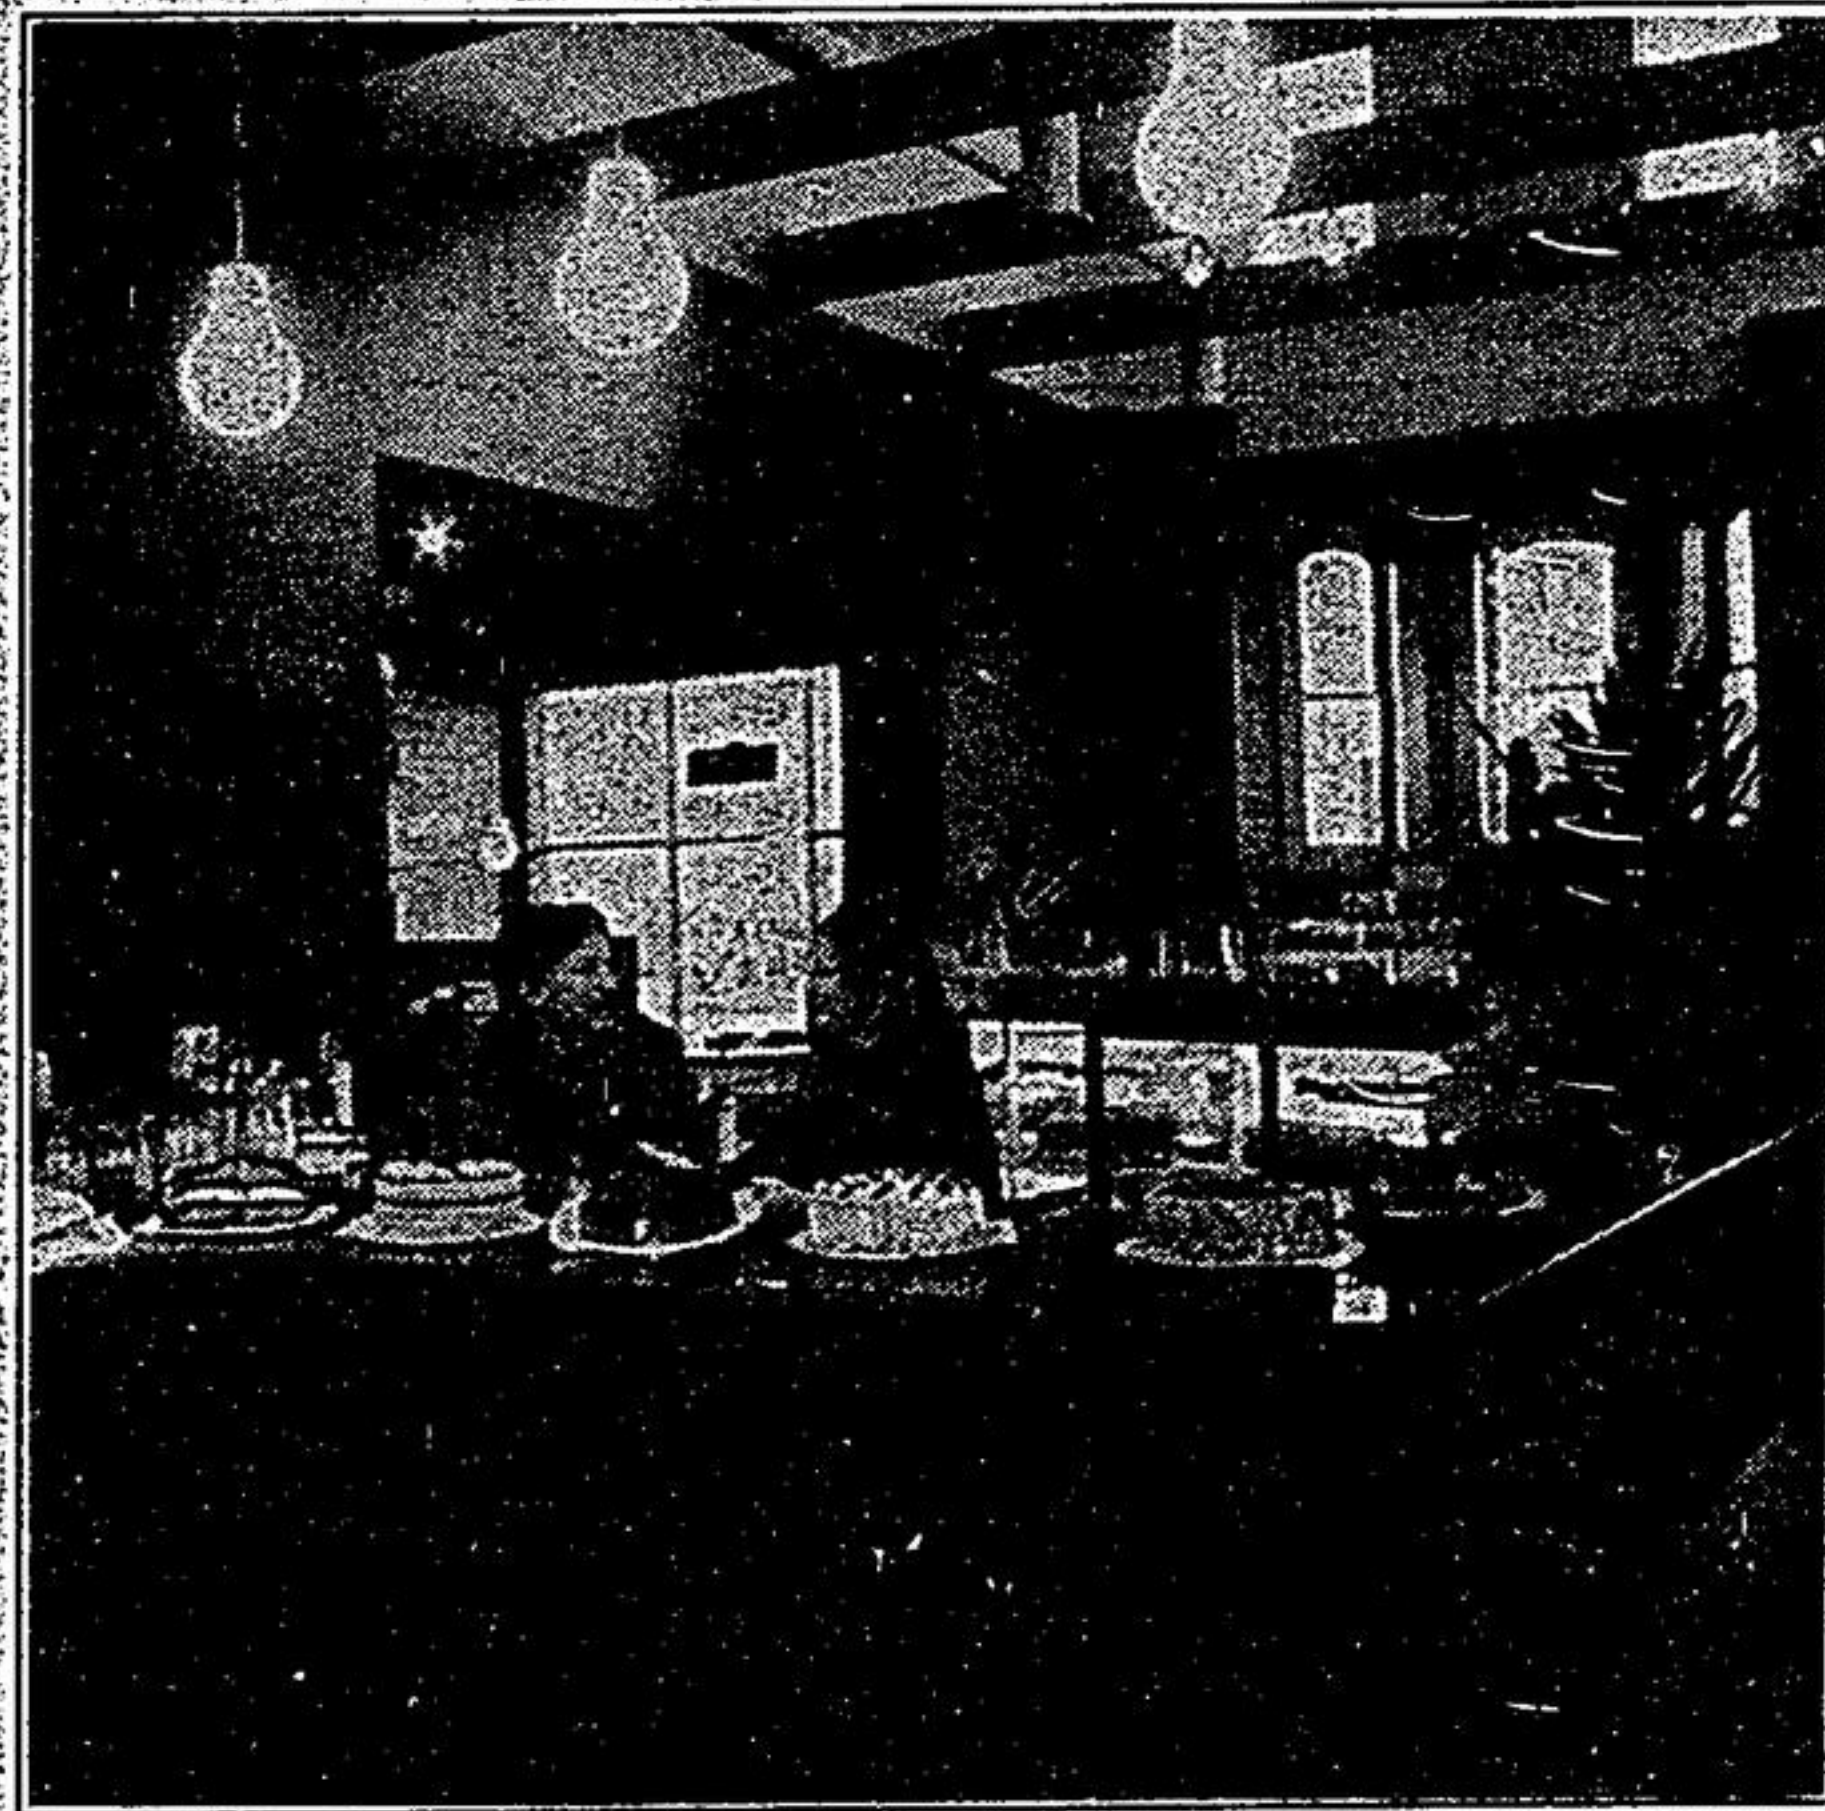

"That's largely due to the architecture of the existing house," Kopman says. "We worked with what was here and left the original bay windows, beams and brickwork in tact."

With about 40 desserts to choose from the cafe stocks something for just about any craving. Lunch is also served on a daily basis.

Also, whole cakes for birthdays or other special occasions can be purchased from the cafe and messages can be added. Some of the more tempting treats include chocolate late almond cheesecake, bailey's chocolate truffle cake, the nut buster and raspberry mousse cake, just to name a few.

"When you come in here the last thing you should worry about is counting calories," Kopman says. "It's a place to relax, talk, and at the same time pamper yourself with a mouth-watering dessert."

Just Desserts is located at 6040 Hwy. 7.

Just Desserts general manager, David Kopman, and employee Shannon Weatherall, can't keep their hands off those tasty treats. The cafe is located at the corner of Hwy. 7 and Main Street Markham.
