

Family would renew their contract in Haiti

(From page 20)

Workers Association including launching a chicken vaccination campaign. Returning to the operation of their Farmers Market at Elgin Mills Rd. and Ninth Line may seem tame after their experiences in Haiti. "Although their plan is to return, mostly for the children, I think they will find it hard. In Haiti, there is so much to do."

Jay's parents, John and Anna Reesor of Stouffville agreed. "In my opinion, I think it will be a cultural shock."

Jay and Miriam Reesor and two daughters Leah and Jessica have experienced some years of turmoil in Haiti.

Jay Reesor and two Bwadlorens women before tightened international sanctions and drought played havoc on food supply.
