

An early Christmas offering

Santa Claus found some time to drop in and have a little breakfast with the Claremont Co-Op Nursery School at the Claremont Community Centre on Dec. 3. In addition to having some breakfast, Santa Claus gave youngsters in attendance some early Christmas gifts. Among those he gave some offerings to was Rachel Issacs, 1, who is sitting on the knee of Barbara Turner. Looking on is Scott Turner (foreground).

Beauty school is in session
