

Bruins take command of playoff series with Chiefs

It wasn't a quick get-away, but the Uxbridge Bruins still managed to sneak out of town after stealing a couple of wins in Lakefield over the weekend.

The Bruins, whose exit was delayed by frozen brakes on the team bus Sunday night after their 4-3 triumph over the host Chiefs, eventually headed home with a three games to one opening round Central Ontario Junior C Hockey League playoff series lead. The two victories came after the Chiefs surprised the Bruins and their fans by squaring the set at one game apiece with a come-from-behind 4-3 win at the Uxbridge Arena Friday.

But the Bruins came back to return the favor in a series which has turned out to be much closer than some had expected. The Uxbridge squad was in a position to wrap things up in game five, which was scheduled to be played in Uxbridge last night. A sixth match, if necessary, would take place tonight in Lakefield, with game seven in Uxbridge Friday night if needed.

In Friday's second game, Jeff Bain and Stu Vandergest, and Ryan Mackenzie scored for the Bruins. Dan Holmes, Vandergest, Ryan Jefferson, Bain and Brandon Pridham each scored once on Saturday to direct the Bruins to a 5-2 win.

Matt Muir scored twice for the Bruins in Sunday's win.

Bain and Paul Trentadue added singles for the Bruins who led 2-1 after one period but entered the final frame tied at 2-2

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

PAUL TRENTADUE
Stouffville resident was the leading goal scorer for the Uxbridge Bruins during the recently completed Central Ontario Junior C Hockey League regular schedule. Paul netted 25 goals, and also had a total of 38 points to finish second on the Bruins in that department.

Good going Paul!
