

Panthers claw their way to Belleville tourney title

The Stouffville Shoppers Drug Mart Panthers midget girls' hockey team captured the Belleville Senior D Tournament with a 2-1 sudden-death overtime win in the title match on Feb. 12.

Stephanie Reid notched the game-winning goal after Amy Apps tied it up with just over a minute to play.

The Panthers downed Durham 5-3 in their opener, with Katie Cuff scoring twice.

Single goals came from the sticks of Apps, Reid and Alisha Hughes. Kathy Tait and Apps clicked as the Panthers tied Belleville 2-2 in their second game.

Jennifer Strype's second goal of the game late in the final period was the difference in a 3-2 win over Orangeville in the game to decide who went to the finals. Cuff rounded out the scoring for the Panthers.

Team captain Katie White, Kirsten Fraser, Amie Lear, Leigh Holland, Karen Wolfenden, Sarah Morrison, Kate Treacy, and goalkeeper Karen Williams all made large contributions to the win.
