Minor novice
Clippers
advance

The Birkett and Hassard minor novice Clippers have advanced to the second round of the playoffs, while the Ken and Neil Patrick major novice Clippers were victorious in three of their four games played over the weekend.

The minor novices blanked Port Perry 2-0 to sweep their opening round playoff series three games to none.

Shawn Gibson recorded his 10th shutout of the season in leading the Clippers to the win.

The Stouffville squad then went on to play Uxbridge in the second round of post season play. They were edged 3-2 in game one, then held on for a 4-4 tie in the second game of the set. Game three is scheduled for Thursday night in Uxbridge.

Scoring for the Clippers in the three games were Michael Lombardo with three goals, Jonathan Wonch and Bob Hughes with two goals each and Cale Tanaka with one score. Assists went to Joshua Spang, (2), Justin Hitchen, (2), Hughes, Tanaka and Lombardo.

The major novices defeated Cobourg 4-2 in a playoff contest played Friday at the Rec Centre. Jordan Smalley, Michael Root, Logan Jennings and Kevin Hayward scored for the Clippers. Assists were earned by James Guinane, Derek Wilcock, Brad Johnson and Root.

At a tournament in Sutton, the Clippers started off with a 6-2 loss to Bancroft on Saturday, then rallied for back to back wins. They downed Schomberg 4-2, then prevailed 3-1 over Keswick.

Guinane led Clippers scorers with five goals. Mark Carruthers had two goals, with singles going to Root and Jennings. Assists went to Carruthers (4), Brian Taylor (3), Smalley, Johnson, Jennings, Root, Hayward and Nick Hawkins.

The major novices host Belleville on Friday at 7 p.m. for the playoff encounter.

Summerhill, Williams spark Angie's to easy win

The Angie's midget A girls hockey team outskated the Mississauga Chiefs to a 7-2 victory recently.

In a game in which each team took nine penalties, Angie's took advantage of a five-minute cross-checking penalty to break open a tie game.

Leading the scoring were Stephanie Summerhill and Jennifer Williams with two goals and two assists each.

Julie Comito earned one goal and an assist, and Laura Winterstein and Jessica Atlen each contributed a goal.

Minor novices are eliminated

The Aikens IDA minor novice Clippers saw their playoff hopes come to an end when they dropped an 8-6 decision to Peterborough to lose their best-of-five series over the weekend.

Lukas Williams scored twice for the Clippers, with singles going to Ryan Fontanna, Ryan Jones, David Brown and Brent Meyer.

Assists went to Jones (2), Casey Maude, Justin Heyworth, Meyer, Fontanna, Williams and Jon Hermanson.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

RON HARRIS

Scored six goals and added four assists to lead the Uxbridge Blackhawks Elites to the Over 40 Division B Championship of the Ottawa Capital Statesmen Oldtimers Hockey Tournament the weekend of February 18.

Congratulations, Ron!
