

National Sports parent files for court protection

By JOAN RANSBERRY
Staff Reporter

of National Sports, an Uxbridge-based firm, with stores across Ontario, including one in Stouffville has filed for court protection. Blair Davidson, senior vice president of KPMG Peat Marwick Thorne of Toronto, confirmed Friday that his company has been appointed

"monitor" in the case involving National Gym Clothing Inc., parent company for National Sports Ltd. Norm Clements, president and owner of the sporting goods company, has filed for court protection, confirmed Davidson. Under the provisions of the Company Credit Arrangement (CCA) Act, Clements is being asked to come up with a plan of compromise, explained Davidson. Through the CCA, Clements has been given a 60-day stay (Please see page 13)
