

Company well-equipped to ride out storm: Peat Marwick

(From page 2) period. Clements has "until May 24," said Davidson. "So, as it is: it's business as usual" for National Sports, said Davidson. He is optimistic that things will work out for National Sports.

"He (Clement) has a good chance" of putting things together," said Davidson.

The 26-year old National Sports has 12 stores employing a total of 600.

Clements also owns the Stouffville Country Flea Market. While the National Sports retail operation in Stouffville is located in the same building as the flea market, this action does not affect the flea market operation whatsoever, said Davidson.

A few weeks ago, the Stouffville Country Flea Market, including 84 acres, was put up for sale for $15 million.

Daffodil Days

The Canadian Cancer Society's Daffodil Days take place from March 30 to April 2 this year. Daffodils will be sold in the community to help raise funds for the fight against cancer.

This campaign is the major fundraiser for the Society, and has been taking place since 1956. This year some five million daffodil blooms are expected to be sold, and organizers hope to raise in excess of $2 million across Ontario. For information on the Daffodil Days campaign in Markham, please call 294-5925.
