SAHL winners unveiled

Red Wings defenceman Paul Guest (white uniform), is about to send Blues counterpart John Hickman for a ride into the boards as the pair were battling for a stray puck during action in last week's SAHL 40 plus B final at the Rec Centre.

How many goals can be scored in a second? In the case of the Smurthwaite Heating Bruins, and the Spring Lakes Nordiques, the answer is two one apiece.

Zeev Werek's second goal of the game with one second left in a five-minute overtime period gave the Bruins a 4-3 victory in Wednesday night's Stouffville Amateur Hockey League (SAHL) 40 Plus 'A' division championship game at the Rec Centre.

The Nords' Frank Jago had forced the extra period when he tied the match with less than a second remaining in regulation time.

The Nords, who trailed 3-1 well into the second and final regulation period, appeared to have put the cap on a dramatic comeback when they scored earlier in the extra period. But the marker was called back because a Nords player was in the goal crease.

Frank Kafun and Jim McKechnie also scored for the Bruins. Damian Comito and Wayne McMann had the other Nords goals. The Bruins, who edged the Nords 4-3 in the third game of the playoff preliminary round robin the previous Wednesday, went undefeated in four post season games.

In the 30 plus championship contest the same night, Dean Tremaine scored in the final round of a five-man shootout, while John Carrick made the save at the other end of the rink as the Boyd's Sports Sharks edged the Fullerton Flames.

The teams were tied after regulation time, with the shootout coming after a five-minute overtime failed to produce a winner.

Wayne Smith and Bob Hughes scored in regulation time for the Sharks. Cam Wallis and Joe O'Conner countered for the Flames.

The Sharks ended up with three wins and a tie in the post season competition, downing the Flames 4-1 in the first game of the playoffs.

The Gallo Real Estate Red Wings downed the Occasions Catering Blues 5-2 in the 40 plus 'B' final. Terry Weatherill had two goals and an assist to lead the Wings. Peter O'Boyle, Doug Pattimore, and Joe Infurnari had singles. Bruce Woodley and Ron Martin scored for the Blues.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

ZEEV WEREK

Smurthwaite Heating Bruins player scored the winning goal with just one second left in overtime to give the Bruins a 4-3 win over the Spring Lakes Nordiques in the Stouffville Amateur Hockey League 40 and over Division Championship game April 12. It was Zeev's second goal of the game.

Girls houseleague hockey action winding down

It's championship finals week for the Witchurch-Stouffville Girls Hockey Association senior and junior houseleague.

Stouffville Photographic earned the right to contest Monday's senior final by defeating Pizza Pizza 8-1 in the semi finals played April 2, while the VIP's advanced by downing Angie's 4-0.

Jennifer Strype had four goals to lead Stouffville Photo. Alison Edward had two goals, with singles going to Lynne Tortorelli and Candice Miller. Kate Treacy scored for Pizza Pizza.

Morgan Dubkowski scored twice for the VIP's. Kristin James and Francesca Milliescamps had single scores.

The junior final will see Play It Again Sports face off against Moller Insurance at the Rec Centre tonight (Wed. April 12) at 7 p.m.

Play It Again defeated Smalley's 3-2 to reach the finals, with Lisa Robinson with two goals, and Melissa Hancock scored for Play It Again. Nicole Damianidis had both Smalley's goals.

Moller Insurance bested Beaver Gas 5-1 to qualify for the title match. Krysta Couperthwaite broke loose for four goals for Moller, with Christine Hartnoll adding the fifth marker. Sarah Ladouceur had the lone Beaver goal.

Beaver and Smalley's play for the consolation prize at 6 p.m. tonight.

Major peewee Clippers edged by Markham

The Markham-Stouffville Credit Union major peewee Clippers were shaded 4-3 by Markham in a recent exhibition game played in Milliken.

Tyler Markle, Stephen Grossett and Bradley Clubine scored to keep the Clippers close.

Tyler Armstrong had a pair of assists, with single helpers going to Markle and Jamie Alston.
