

Strong finish for major novice Clippers

The Ken and Neil Patrick major novice Clippers wrapped up their season recently with five wins in seven games. The Clippers downed Bowmanville 6-1 at the Rec Centre to kick off their stretch run, then headed to Cobourg for a season ending tournament. The Stouffville squad got solid goalkeeping from Mike McManus and Trevor McNeely as they swept all four games to win their division. But the Clippers were nipped 1-0 by Milton in the championship contest, then fell 5-1 to Cobourg in the 'B' final. Scoring for the Clippers against Bowmanville were Michael Manson, Mark Carruthers, Alex Bollo (2), James Guinane and Geoff Campbell. Assists went to Brian Taylor (2), Brad Johnson, Mike Root (2), Jordan Smalley and Kevin Hayward. At the Cobourg tourney, Bollo and Derek Wilcock scored in a 2-0 win over Downsview in game one. Logan Jennings, Smalley and Taylor assisted.

MVP honors went to McManus, who earned the shutout. It was Bollo and Campbell clicking in a 2-1 win over North Frontenac in game two. Jennings and Nick Hawkins assisted, with Taylor named MVP. The Clippers then defeated Lakefield 4-1 to advance to the semi-finals. Taylor, Carruthers, Bollo and Guinane scored, with assists going to Root, Taylor, Wilcock, Jennings, Johnson and Bollo. Bollo was MVP. Stouffville ousted first place Agincourt 4-0 in the semi finals. Taylor scored twice, with singles coming from Bollo and Carruthers. Assists went to Wilcock (2), Campbell and Guinane. Hayward was named MVP. Stephen Relf earned the Clippers MVP nomination in the title game with Milton. Against Cobourg in the 'B' final, it was Carruthers scoring the lone Clippers goal. Guinane and Smalley assisted. Carruthers was Stouffville MVP for the game.
