'GST' auction to be held at United Church

They'll be out for the GST Friday evening at Stouffville United Church

The congregation, along with a group of Music Mania members, will be holding a GST (goods, services and talents) Auction at 7 p.m. May 12. Items going off the block include field level Blue Jays tickets, a weekend at a cottage on Lake Haliburton, a Centre Island picnic, a progressive dinner, a July fireworks cruise on the Toronto waterfront and a catered children's swimming pool party. Also up for grabs are hand crafted items, along with babysitting and yard work services from the church youth.

Music Mania fixtures Lorne Boudway and Don Huxtable will be the auctioneers.

"The idea's been successful in other churches," said fundraiser Carolyn Duggan.

"And with Lorne and Don as auctioneers, that should be a show in itself."

Money raised is to go towards the church.

Legion's VE Day parade today on Main St. route

Whitchurch-Stouffville's branch of the Royal Canadian Legion has one of the busiest agendas to celebrate the VE Day anniversary of any club in the Toronto area.

For many, the highlight comes today. The VE Day 50th anniversary parade will march down Main St. beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Organizers expect afternoon festivities to wind up at the Legion around 3 p.m.

Come out to the parade and bring along your Canadian flag to salute our veterans.
