Withdrawal from daycare not eviction

Dear Editor,
As another parent involved with the Children's House Day Care, I feel compelled to comment on your front page article of May 10. Having been aware of the situation since last week, I was surprised to see that your reporter considered it such a scandal. I wish I had been available to Ms Ransberry to give her another side of the story.

Mrs. Reter's concerns may be valid, but we were informed, with compassion and support, that our son would have to withdraw for a short period of time.

There was no talk of eviction, no one was being "thrown out." We were offered assistance to find alternative daycare arrangements and, because we have faith in the wonderful staff, we are looking forward to our son's return to Children's House, as soon as space becomes available.

We looked carefully before placing our child in daycare and have been very happy with the loving attention he has received at the Children's House. The staff at this facility don't just babysit, they truly do love the children that they tend to. Maybe that's the reason why so many Stouffville parents are so eager to place their children in such capable hands and the Children's House is so successful.
