Above, celebrations were in full swing for Audrey and Vern Davies, pictured above with their daughter Janet and son George. May 5 marked the Davies' 50th wedding anniversary, with festivities at Cedar Beach Parks which the couple owns. They were married one day before the end of the Second World War.

At right, Cousins Wilfred Taylor and Rebecca Steiner took turns pulling a wagon full of plants at the Summitview Public School soil sale.
