

Hole in one for Dickson Hill grandmother

A Dickson Hill grandmother recorded a hole in one at the Markham Green Golf and Country Club on June 5.

Elisabeth Nielsen managed the ace with a three wood on the 133 yard 16th hole at the Ninth Line and Hwy 7 area course.

It was the first ever hole in one for the long time member at the club, formerly the IBM golf course. The perfect shot was witnessed by three women playing in Nielsen's foursome.

For Nielsen, who has two grown children and three grandchildren, the ace was the saving grace for what had been a bad round.

"I was having a lousy day. Before I shot it, I said I better get a birdie or a hole in one here," said Nielsen, who shot a 98 on the round.

"It landed on the green and it just rolled into the hole."

While she was excited about the big shot, she said it took second place to a shot she had managed to sink just a few days previous.

"I chipped it in from 100 yards for a birdie on the 18th hole with an eight iron," said Nielsen.

Nielsen, who will be presented with a trophy at a members function this fall, resumed golfing 14 years ago after giving up the game while she raised her children.

Nielsen said she golfs two or three times a week during the season. Her best ever round was an 82.

Baxter pair dance up a storm at Georgetown Highland Games

Two Stouffville sisters came up with strong performances at the Georgetown Highland Games on Saturday.

Siobhan Baxter, nine and her sister Sarah, seven, competed in the Highland Dancing Competition, with Siobhan placing fourth in the sword dance and sixth in the highland fling in her category.

Sarah took sixth for the highland fling in her age group.

Both girls dance with Kicks Dance Studio in Markham.

They are to compete at events in Cobourg and Ferris this summer. The highlight of their season will be a trip to Linville, North Carolina to compete in the Grandfather Mountain Highland Games.
