

BERRY GOOD

The 11th annual Whitchurch-Stouffville Strawberry Festival was a sweet success

The 11th annual Strawberry Festival was a rollicking success thanks to the co-operation of Mother Nature. At left, baby contestant Cassandra Stanton, held by mom Helen, waves to the crowd instead of the judges. They declared her Grand Champion baby at the Stouffville Progress Club

The Kick Up a Fuss Cloggers entertained on Main St. Saturday afternoon.

bubbles Saturday at the Strawberry Festival. Good weather brought out an enthusiastic crowd to the annual event's busiest day.

Dave Probert lifts Kenny-Leigh Daniels for a good look at the target at the sponge loss. At right, Ward 5 councillor Judy Scala takes a sponge in the face. Local residents came out in force for all the festival events, from the Lions' beef barbecue to Saturday's events to the acumenical church service Sunday. Saturday night's fireworks dazzled friends and neighbors on the town's special weekend.

Stephanie Markie, 8, samples one of summer's sweet treats Saturday at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Strawberry Festival.
