DON VALLEY NORTH LEXUS - TOYOTA ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

NICK MAZZOLI

Markham native Nick Mazzoli proved to be too much for the Ottawa Rough Riders defence to handle on Sunday. The 27-year-old slotback for the Edmonton Eskimos football club hauled in six passes, including three for touchdowns of six, 50 and 55 yards, to lead his team to a 63-3 win over the visiting Rough Riders. This season is Mazzoli's first, with the Eskimos after being traded during the off season to Edmonton from Ottawa. Mazzoli began his CFL career with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats back in 1991.

Marry the person you can't live without Question: I am a 19-year-old single girl. I'm aware of some pretty awful circumstances that can occur in marriage. If that's the way it is, why should I bother to get married at all?

Dr. Dobson: Coping with a bad marriage can be a terrible experience, but a good marriage is a life-long treasure. I can tell you from a personal point of view that marriage to my wife, Shirley, is the best thing that ever happened to me and there are millions who can offer similar testimony.

Life involves problems no matter what your choices. If you remain single, your frustrations will be of a different nature, but they will occur nevertheless. As to whether or not you should marry, I would offer you the same advice given me when I was an eight-year-old boy, by a teacher whose name I don't even remember. He said: "Don't marry the person you think you can live with, marry the person you think you can't live without. If such an individual ever comes along,

Either way, I think you're ahead by knowing in advance that married life offers no panacea - that if it is going to reach its potential, it will require an all-out investment by both husband and wife.

These questions and answers are excerpted from the book Dr. Dobson's "Answers Your Questions." Everyone who writes to Dr. Dobson receives a personal response.
